The purpose of the Higher Purpose Funding Network (HPFN) is to provide capital matchmaking, application packaging, and customized business growth support for Black entrepreneurs in Mississippi.

This program will benefit Black entrepreneurs who have been historically underserved in Mississippi. HPC uses the term Black entrepreneurs to include worker owners, farmers, artists, and creatives. Black residents who identify as women, rural, millennials, and returning citizens will be prioritized to apply for business funding.

2019 Key Dates
Funding Network Partner Sign Up August-October 2019
Bi-Annual Convening Clarksdale, Mississippi (November 2019)

Network Benefits for Partners
Pipeline of Entrepreneurs • Co-Investing • Convening

Higher Purpose Funding Network supported by the Surdna Foundation

www.HigherPurposeCo.org/HPFN